Madison Consolidated High School

The primary mission of the Community Foundation of Madison and Jefferson County, Inc. is to assist donors to build an enduring source of charitable assets to benefit the Jefferson County community. Many donors have sought to achieve this goal by endowing gifts for scholarships for higher education so that people like you will have a greater likelihood of reaching their potential.

Attached please find a list of scholarships currently available in the Community Foundation that Madison Consolidated High School seniors are eligible for.

- Unless otherwise noted, the scholarship application deadline is March 5, 2010.
- These awards are generally for tuition only. Therefore, students already receiving a full-tuition award from a college or another source are not eligible for Community Foundation scholarships.
- These scholarships are not renewable unless otherwise noted.
- Employees and board members of the Community Foundation, as well as family members of the aforementioned individuals, are ineligible for competitive Community Foundation scholarships. This includes spouses, lineal descendants and their spouses, and brothers and sisters and their spouses. The period of ineligibility extends through the calendar year following the year in which the volunteer position or employment ends.
- Family members of selection advisory committees are ineligible for Community Foundation scholarships. This includes spouses, lineal descendants and their spouses, and brothers and sisters and their spouses.
