

2015 Grant Awards

Englishton Park Summer Academic Remediation Training Center - $1,500 to fund summer camp fees for a Jefferson County child

Habitat for Humanity of Jefferson County - $1,125 to create a Financial Literacy Lending Library that is open to the public

Lydia Middleton Elementary - $2,310 to implement the Lego Story Starter Kit to help with creative writing

Girls on the Run/King's Daughters' Health - $1,500 to support the Fall 2019 program and purchase new running shoes for participants in need

Madison Consolidated Schools Early Development Center - $5,085 to fund tuition for three Jefferson County children to attend the center part-time

Madison Youth Unlimited/Friends of Hargan-Matthews Park - $3,000 to develop the Hargan-Matthews Park playground

Pathways Youth Shelter - $6,242 to replace six bunk beds and repair stairs leading to the tornado shelter