

2022 Scholarship Listing

The primary mission of the Community Foundation of Madison and Jefferson County, Inc. is to assist donors who build an enduring source of charitable assets to benefit the Jefferson County community. Many donors have sought to achieve this goal by endowing gifts for scholarships for higher education so local students have a greater likelihood of reaching their potential.

- Applications will open to students on Wednesday, December 1, 2021. A link to online applications will be available on the Scholarship page of www.cfmjc.org.
- The deadline to submit completed applications online or to Guidance Counselors is Friday, January 28, 2022 at NOON unless otherwise noted. Scholarships using other applications may have different deadlines. Please review the deadlines and requirements for each scholarship. Applications and/or recommendations received after the stated deadline WILL NOT be considered under any circumstance.
- Scholarships including Financial Need in the criteria will require the applicant to upload the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) page from the student's most recent FAFSA before the scholarship deadline. Go to FAFSA.gov to complete your financial aid information. You will need your family's most recent (2020) tax information among other documentation.
- Scholarship awards are for tuition and/or tuition related expenses only. Students already receiving a full-tuition award from a college or another source (i.e. full-tuition athletic or academic scholarship, 21st Century Scholarship at a public institution, tuition exchange) *may not be eligible to receive Community Foundation scholarships.
- Scholarship awards are generally for graduating high school seniors and are not renewable, unless otherwise noted.
- Community Foundation employees, board members, and selection committee volunteers, as well as family members of the aforementioned individuals, are ineligible for Community Foundation scholarships. Ineligible family members include spouses, lineal descendants and their spouses, siblings and their spouses. The period of ineligibility extends through the calendar year following the year in which the volunteer position or employment ends.
- Scholarship awards are mailed directly to the selected schools on August 1. Student and school information must be submitted to the Community Foundation by June 30.
- It is the responsibility of the applicant to confirm that all parts of the application are completed and submitted before the deadline. This includes, but is not limited to, submission of recommendation letters and addressing technical issues.
